Rooted in Our Communities.

Agriculture is part of our livelihood, our families and the places we call home.

The UFC Foundation gives community members a way to support that connection for generations to come. Our mission is to promote agriculture and support rural communities in northeast Missouri, west central Illinois and surrounding areas.

Whether you want to support local youth, honor someone's memory or help meet a community need, your contribution can make a difference close to home.

Let's Keep Supporting Our Neighbors.

Have a question about giving or a community need you would like to discuss? We would be glad to talk with you.

UFC FOUNDATION

Neighbors Supporting Neighbors

Supporting local youth, strengthening rural communities and investing in the future of agriculture.

Supporting Local Youth.

A fair project represents months of early mornings, daily chores and learning along the way. Supporting young exhibitors recognizes that commitment and encourages them to keep going.

Making an Impact at Local Fairs

1,100+ exhibitor donation checks presented
3,500+ UFC T-shirts handed out
2,200+ pork chops served
1,300+ hamburgers served
70+ hot dogs served

From the show ring to a shared meal, fair season gives us opportunities to support local families and the next generation of agriculture.

Seeing Agriculture Beyond the Farm.

For six local students, the Riverbanks to Riverboats trip brought the grain supply chain to life.

During their educational trip to New Orleans, students visited the CHS barge terminal at Myrtle Grove and the CGB ZENNOH terminal to see how grain moves beyond our local communities and on to markets around the world.

Experiences like these help young people connect what they know about agriculture at home with the opportunities ahead of them.

Help Grow the Next Opportunity.

Your contribution can help create opportunities for local youth and support the communities where we live and work.
